COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The highway crew is now hauling gravel on the town road improvement on Grover Hill. It will take ten or twelve days to complete the gravel base. I have been asked a couple of times why the curve wasn't straightened out about 500 feet from the start of the job. The State doesn't want the location of the road changed very much. The curve isn't quite as sharp as it was and the bushes have been cut back allowing better vision around the corner.

The fire station study committee will hold a meeting on Thursday, Sept. 20 in the town office. Some members were away at different times during the summer so the committee has not been active. Future meetings will deal with the subjects of size, design and available land for a new fire station. The committee is a study committee to investigate and make recommendations for the location of a new fire station, type and size of building, procure estimates on costs and submit a report to the Selectmen by December 31, 1962. The last sentence was taken from the article in the warrant. The committee has investigated some of the subjects and will continue this fall so a comprehensive recommendation can be made to the selectmen and the town.

STATE POLICE URGE

"KEEP EYE ON SMALL FRY"

"Keep an eye on all small fry!"

The State Police made this appeal to all motorists as they urged them to be constantly on the alert for young pedestrians.

"Young folks have a way of moving faster than the eye can follow, making it very difficult to keep up with their movements," cautioned the enforcement group. "However, the only way we can hope to make any progress in cutting down the number of child pedestrian deaths and injuries is to be alert at all times for the sudden and unpredictable actions of these small fry."

The police pointed out that, in spite of the intensive efforts of parents, schools, safety groups, and enforcement organizations — youngsters still "do the unexpected."

"Accidents involving young pedestrians usually happen in the twinkling of an eye," they continued. "All at once, a youngster appears from nowhere. Brakes squeal—but all too often, another fatality or injury is recorded."

"To offset this problem of unpredictable behavior by children, especially while they are crossing streets, each of us must be constantly and extraordinarily alert behind the wheel," added the police. "School zones and playground areas, particularly during the peak hours of traffic at morning, noon and afternoon, demand the utmost in driving caution."

"All drivers," they concluded, "have a special obligation as far as the youngsters are concerned. Let's all heed that warning which we hear and see so often concerning children in or near traffic.... 'Expect the Unexpected'."

After lunch the business meeting was called to order by the president, Arnold Jordan. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Edwin Howe; Vice President, Gilbert Dunham; Secretary and Treasurer, Elouise Howe; Entertainment Committee, Richard Jordan, Leland Dunham and Charlotte Cole.

Following the meeting a program was presented by Patti Dunham, poem; Charlotte Cole and Lillian Mills, duet; Phillip House, accordion; Bonnie Jordan, pantomime; Irving and Charlotte Cole, guitar; Sandra Dunham, accordion; Richard, Nathalie, Arnold and Pearl Jordan, hymn; Phillip House, piano; Betty House and Nancy Scribner, duet; Wayne Howe, poem. After the program, badminton and a softball game was enjoyed.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cross, Mrs. Rowena Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Dunham, Kathy, Patti, and Vickie, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Mills and Elaine, Mrs. Laura Seames, Mrs. Evelyn Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Orlando E. ## Plan Open House at New Parsonage

After some six months work the newly renovated Harris Memorial Parsonage on Broad Street will be opened to the public for inspection at an "Open House" occasion, Sunday afternoon, Sept. 23, from 3:00 to 5:30.

The various organizations of the West Parish Congregational Church will be represented at the coffee table throughout the afternoon and members of the Board of Trustees and the Diaconate will be on hand as escorts.

The Harris homestead was left to the West Parish Congregational Church, according to the will, to be used as a Parsonage. The work of remodeling was started in January and involved an extended heating system, extensive remodeling of practically every room, a completely new electrical wiring job, and finished floors, paint and papering throughout.

All interested people throughout the community and the greater Bethel area will be welcomed to the Open House.

Bethel Parent-Teachers Start Year

The PTA met Tuesday evening at the Crescent Park School for the first meeting of the year with 81 attending. Janet Richardson, president, conducted the business meeting. Pat Clemons was elected secretary. It was announced that Rita Davis has been appointed chairman for the Halloween party.

The third grade won the attendance banner.

Following the business meeting, Charles Heino, program chairman, introduced members of the school board, and the teachers. Dexter Stowell introduced Hamilton Bailey, superintendent, who spoke briefly to the group. He announced that the new addition was slow in being completed due to the fact that the wrong type of windows had been sent. When these windows arrive other work may proceed to complete the job later this fall.

An informal coffee hour followed with refreshments served by the 8th grade mothers.

"The old self-contained classroom is disappearing; so is the grade system," according to Changing Times. "Many elementary and secondary schools now tend to group students by ability rather than age or grade, and many lower schools are experimenting with no grades at all."

In addition, the article notes, many subjects are being taught earlier, with elementary grades receiving science, social studies and even some algebra, and high school subjects are being moved to junior high.

Madonna - Mother
The Madonna in the window is very sweet and fair,
Clasping close her precious baby,
With a veil upon her hair.

Loneliness in form and color,
Grace and poise in every line,
And the glory in her features
That makes motherhood sublime.

The Madonna I remember,
Never had the time to pose,
She was always very busy sweeping, dusting, mending hose.

Mending up our cuts and scratches,
Making cookies, cakes and pies,
Singing songs and telling stories,
Till the sand man closed our eyes.

But I think that my Madonna
Resting in "God's Acre" there,
Is as fair as this one pictured,
With the veil upon her hair.

...THE ONES THAT WHIPPED THE BAJA RUN...TOUGHEST UNDER THE SUN...
TO SHOW THE WORTH OF NEW ENGINES, FRAMES AND SUSPENSIONS!

Sometimes the caravan crept along for hours in low gear. It took 17 days to go 1,066 miles! This is the road near Loreto.

Millions of years ago nature fashioned a proving ground for trucks that man can never duplicate. Today it is known as the Baja (bah' hah) California Peninsula, Mexico.

These pictures give you only a bare idea of the place. The road is fine for 140 miles below the U.S. border. Then the beating begins. Rocks and hard-baked ruts bang, jab and jerk the trucks from stem to stern. Loose sand makes them struggle and strain. Dust chokes them. Heat roasts them. Rivers drench them.

The Baja Run took this Chevrolet truck caravan 17 days to go the 1,066 miles.

All the trucks performed magnificently. Not one was forced to drop out because of mechanical difficulty.

Trucks that can take this kind of beating can take on your toughest truck jobs. Come in now and see tough quality-built '63 Chevrolet trucks with all their new improvements.

BETHEL, MAINE

1963 ECLIPSE IN MAINE
TO ATTRACT THOUSANDS

A simple procedure for marking out the path of totality for the eclipse of the sun on July 20, 1963, is being presented by the Maine Department of Economic Development as a result of consultations with its advisory committee of Maine College scientists.

Form the center line of the path of totality: On a map of Maine draw a line from just north of Megantic, Quebec, Canada, through Bar Harbor. This line will pass almost exactly through Pleasant Pond Village, off Route 201, just northeast of Caratunk; also approximately through Kingsbury (Route 16); Cornish (Route 7); South Orrington (Route 15); and East Surry, south of Ellsworth.

For the southern edge of the path of totality: From a point about four miles northeast of the junction of the Maine, New Hampshire and Quebec borders, draw a line through the town of Stonington, on the coast. This line will cross Route 16 between Rangeley and Stratton; pass through New Portland; Benton on Route 100 Alt.; just northeast of Waterville; and just south of Belfast, on Route One.

For the northern edge of totality: Draw a line from just north of Armstrong, Quebec, through Jonesport in Washington County. This line will pass just south of Rockwood, on Moosehead Lake; also through Milo and Columbia, the latter on Route One in Washington County.

Exactness of the various spotting points will depend on the accuracy of the map used.

At the Maine-Quebec border, the path of totality will be 55 miles wide. At the Penobscot River, it will be 53 miles wide. At the Quebec border, the duration of totality will be about 62 seconds. At Bar Harbor, it will be 59 seconds.

The altitude of the sun at the mid-eclipse point will be 26 degrees at the Canadian border and 24 degrees at Bar Harbor. This means that for clear views of the eclipse, there should be no obstructions in the line of sight greater than the respective number of degrees above the western horizon.

Exact time of the mid-eclipse will be 5:42 p. m., Eastern Daylight Time, at the Canadian border; 5:43 p. m., EDT at Cambridge; and 5:44:30 p. m. at Bar Harbor. These time checks are closely approximate and will be refined as further tabulations are made available. The duration of totality will be reduced at points away from the center line, but the percentage of duration will remain surprisingly high, as much as 48 to 62 seconds, at about six to eight miles inside both edges of the path of totality. From there to the edges of the path duration falls off rapidly, being only a possible fraction of a second at the very edge. Viewing points as much as 15 to 20 miles either side of the center line of totality will average an excellent locations.

A total eclipse of the sun will not occur in Maine again until possibly sometime beyond the year 2045. That's the limit of eclipse tables so far uncovered by DED. The next total eclipse seen in Maine could be as far away as 360 years.

Maine and Alaska are the only states which will have next year's total eclipse. The Maine path in the most densely populated and has the advantage of many accessible hills and medium-height mountains. Cadillac Mountain, near Bar Harbor, with a tourist highway to the summit, is expected to be crowded. A map of Maine reveals many other summits in the path of totality, from Northern Franklin and Somerset Counties, through Piscataquis, Penobscot, Waldo, Hancock and Washington Counties. Even at Clinton, northeastern Kennebec County, the eclipse will be total, but the duration will be down to 10 to 20 seconds.

Because of the magnificent views from most Maine Mountains, scientists are looking forward to a somewhat unusual spectacle. From a high promontory in the path of totality, an observer in the darkness of total eclipse may be able, if the day is clear, to see the peaks of distant mountains showing in

METHODIST FAMILY
SUPPER

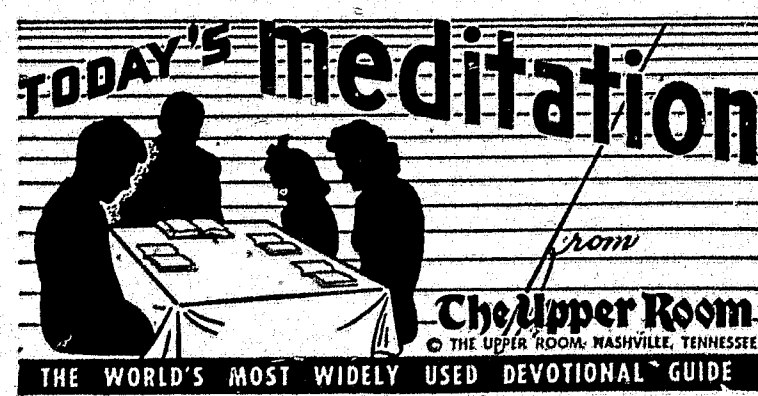

The Bethel Methodist Church will hold a Family Night Supper at the Church on Friday, Sept. 28, at 6:30 p. m. Robert W. Brown, Secretary of Stewardship of the New England Conference of The Methodist Church, is to be the guest speaker for the occasion. The Senior MYF is planning activities for the children who attend. The supper is being prepared and served by the men of the church. Member and constituent families are cordially invited to attend.

ROBERTSON COMPLETES
RECRUIT TRAINING

Dennis A. Robertson, son of Mrs. Edith K. Robertson of Bethel, completed recruit training, Aug. 17, at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

He was recruit chief petty officer of his recruit company and assisted in the training of his fellow recruits during the nine-week training period. He was chosen by his company commander for this supervisory capacity on the basis of high initiative, outstanding leadership ability, military bearing, immaculate appearance, attention to duty, and because he has expressed a high example to his comrades in arms.

He attended the University of Maine at Orono.

Read John 14:1-7

The light is still shining in the darkness, for the darkness has never put it out. (John 1:5. Goodspeed.)

We are living in a dark day, but the light that came into the world in the person of Jesus Christ cannot be put out. The enemies of Jesus were incapable of extinguishing the light of the world nineteen hundred years ago, and none since then has been able to do it. There is no possibility of defeating Christ, now or ever.

I stood at Duque Falls in rapt attention. I heard the roar of the rushing water and saw the spray. But the noise and the spray were not the powerful stream of water itself.

This reminded me of the ongoing of Christianity, which Jesus set in motion. There are times when the roar seems so loud and the spray so spectacular that the tremendous program itself—the program of evangelizing the world—seems lost. But it is not so. The risen Lord is our absolute assurance of hope, progress, and finally the triumph of Christ and the kingdom of God.

Prayer: Dear Father, grant us the strength that comes from the knowledge that Thou wilt not allow Thyself to be defeated. Use us in making Christ known to others and in encouraging them to accept Him as their personal Savior. In His name and for His sake, Amen.

Thought For The Day
Christ is our sure hope because nothing can ever defeat Him.

COUNTRY FLAVOR

MEADOW NOON

As fall equinox nears and the sun rises in the east and sets due west, the time of equal hours of day and night brings pre-autumn mellow noons.

High noon on a warm September day is one of Year's rich experiences in living. White clouds sail a deep-blue sky; warmth broods over fields and meadows, hills and woodlands like a gentle benediction. The morning breeze dies away and soft warm air blankets the countryside.

There are September noons when it seems as if Time stands still for an interlude. The quietness of day is accentuated by the alto call of a chickadee in the old August Sweet tree and the melancholy call of a crow from the tall elm by the meadow brook.

The dictionary says that mellow means mature, fully developed; soft or tender by reason of ripeness. The mellowness in the air is part of the plan that governs our flowering world. September dawns are often misty and damp, and gray fog fingers stretch along the lowlands and hover over mountain ravines. Dawn mists are an integral part of this month when year is maturing and mellowness lies like an excellent locations.

the mid-twilight gray of the penumbra on either side of the path of totality. He also may see the black shadow of the eclipse cone approaching over the distant landscape at about 3,000 miles per hour.

From Cadillac Mountain, for example, viewers may be able to see Mt. Katahdin on the north, the Camden Hills in the west, and the radio towers at Cutler on the east. From northwestern Maine mountains, viewers may be able to see peaks of the White Mountains to the Southwest, Katahdin on the northeast and the Canadian boundary mountains on the north. All the high points outside the path of totality will be seen in the mid-gray of partial eclipse.

The entire State of Maine will be in partial eclipse, with an estimated 95 per cent of totality at Kittery and Fort Kent. The DED predicts that as many as 50,000 persons may be attracted to Maine just for next year's eclipse, as it will be the last chance in this lifetime for most persons in the Northeast to view nature's most spectacular phenomenon.

Scientists also have figured out that Earth is the only planet in the Solar System that can have an eclipse of the sun giving a complete view of the corona, such as Maine residents will witness on Saturday afternoon, July 20, 1963.

Frequent eclipses are seen on the planet Jupiter, even with a small telescope, but if Jupiter has any residents, they would not be able to see the marvelous spectacle of a complete solar corona, such as Earthlings can witness in a total eclipse of the sun.

PHILIPPE ROLFE WINS BOAT AT BRUNSWICK

One month to the day after winning third prize at the Navy Brunswick Summer Festival, twelve-year-old Philippe Rolfe of Bethel was presented his prize by Lt. R. E. Flolid, USN, Committee Prize Chairman.

Philippe has spent the last month unaware that he was the owner of a 16' Sports Runabout, complete with motor and trailer, because he forgot to put the name of the town on his donation ticket.

Since Aug. 12, Festival Committee members have searched for Mr. Philippe Rolfe of 12 Park Street through city directories, telephone exchanges, newspapers, television, and even the Income Tax Bureau, with no success.

Last week Miss Cheryl Cummings of Liberty Circle, Topsham, was addressing a letter to Maryvonne, Philippe's sister, when she recalled seeing the address on TV and in the newspapers. She telephoned the Rolfe residence in Bethel and informed them of the possibility of Philippe being the winner. The Rolfs contacted the Naval Air Station and it was determined that Philippe did hold the winning ticket and arrangements were made to present him the prize Wednesday of last week at Higgins Sports Center in Auburn.

Present for the occasion were Philippe, his parents Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rolfe and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Anatole Philippe from Rouen, France, who are here on vacation.

The boat will make her maiden voyage at Songo Pond. Philippe expects to spend his spare time this fall learning the operation of his new craft.

PETITIONS AVAILABLE FOR INTRODUCTION OF RIGHT TO WORK BILL

Walter F. Tweedie, executive director of the Maine Citizens for Right to Work, Inc., has announced that printing of petitions calling for the introduction of the Right To Work Bill in the 101st Maine Legislature has been completed.

"The petitions are meeting with excellent reception," Tweedie commented, "with complete statewide coverage now in progress." He said persons interested in circulating petitions may obtain copies from Maine Citizens for Right to Work, Inc., Box 329, Mars Hill.

Tweedie reported that four of the towns which initially received petitions, signed up 300 per cent, 212 per cent, 206 per cent and 142 per cent of their respective quotas in the first three days of circulation of the documents. Quota for the entire state is 55,000 signatures of registered voters.

The executive director added that "response is very gratifying as more and more people of Maine have realized that no citizen of this state should be forced, against his will, to join or support any private organization, whether it be a church, political group or a union. At the same time, each individual must not be prevented from joining or supporting these or any other organizations if he so wishes. This is the sole principle of Right to Work Law."

Knowing the right answers to these questions will help you become a better driver and help make Maine's streets and highways the safest in the nation.

Please direct inquiries to the Maine Highway Safety Committee, Box 567, Pearl Street Station, Portland, Maine.

TEST YOUR DRIVING I. Q.

Select the best answer.

Question:

When you leave the open highway or a freeway and begin to drive on city streets, it is most important that you: (a) Check your speedometer frequently. (b) Time the traffic lights so you can adjust to the most efficient speed. (c) Pattern your driving on that of the majority of drivers who have local license plates. (d) Note street names or numbers so you will reach your destination by the most efficient route.

Answer (a)

Pedestrians, cross streets, traffic congestion, reduced vision, and many other factors require reduced speed in built-up areas. If you happen to be driving into the city from the open highway, check your speedometer frequently. Keep within the posted speed limit. If there are no signs, assume that the limit is 25 miles per hour. Remember that after open road speeds, you may seem to be "crawling" when you are still going too fast for city streets.

City driving conditions make clear the great need for desirable attitudes, courtesy and sportsmanship. While you, as a trained driver, will have and use these qualities, you cannot be sure that others, less informed, will do the same. You should make up your mind to drive defensively and be ready and willing to allow for the other fellow's mistakes.

The flowers in Bethel's only remaining water tub at Main and Railroad Streets offer an attractive spot for the gaze of both natives and visitors. The lower guide board may well be the cause of confusion in the new bridge area, as it has been incorrect since the old overhead bridge was removed.

In the background is seen the Roadside Grille, or "Martha's," a popular restaurant. Part of this building was for many years occupied by the monument works of the late E. E. Whitney. Next to the restaurant is their new parking lot where the former Herrick Brothers garage stood.

The water tub was erected in the early days of the Bethel Water Company and served its purpose until a few years ago. For many years a similar tub stood at the foot of the Common.

Cross Country Has Two Lettermen Returning; Plan New Running Course

With the loss of Fred Judkins, Ed Tibbetts and Alan Ring, three outstanding runners, Gould faces a tough building year ahead. Two lettermen, Captain Dan Grover and Clarence Remington will be aided by a few runners with some experience from last year who should help considerably. They are Ralph Jackson, Tony Chapman, and Steve Dock. Also from last year's squad are Raymond Saunders, Robert Swain, Eric Paul, and Trafton Foster.

New and untried additions to the squad are Bruce Lane,

Vaughan Damone, Mike Tibbetts, John Lombard, Bob Bartholomew, Boyd Lane, Lee Vail, Bruce Brown, Andrew Buck, and Richard Packard. Jon Stowell is the manager, assisted by Billy Keoskie.

A new traffic circle just off the Gould campus has necessitated the lay-out of a new running course. The course is planned so that the race will start and finish in front of the bleachers on the athletic field. The following is the 1962 schedule:

Sept. 27 Fryeburg and Oxford Hills at Gould
Oct. 2 Gould at Mexico
Oct. 9 Portland at Gould

Oct. 30 Gould at Bridgton High School, Western Maine Championship Cross Country meet.
